

charlotte de witte

A brief one-sentence summary or tagline for the artist.

Biography

Charlotte de Witte is a Belgian DJ and record producer known for her dark and stripped-back style of techno music, particularly acid techno and minimal techno. She has gained significant recognition in the electronic music scene, headlining major festivals, gracing the covers of music publications, and consistently ranking high in music charts. De Witte founded the labels KNTXT and Époque, demonstrating her commitment to pushing boundaries in the techno genre.

Early Career & Breakthrough: De Witte started DJing in 2010 and gained early recognition by winning a competition to open the main stage at Tomorrowland in 2011.

Sound & Style: She is known for her intense, addictive, and impressive studio productions, often featuring a dark and stripped-down approach to techno, sometimes incorporating her own vocals.

Labels: She founded the KNTXT label, which releases her own tracks and hosts events, and more recently launched Époque, a platform for remixes of iconic tracks.

Recognition: De Witte has received numerous accolades, including being named Best Techno at the DJ Awards in 2019 and being recognized as one of the world's top techno DJs.

Global Impact: She has performed at major festivals and venues worldwide, solidifying her status as a leading figure in the global techno scene

Notable Releases

A list of key releases. Format: * '[Year]' - Title of Release - [Label]

- '[2025]' - Example EP - [Example Records]

Gigs & Festivals Played

A list of notable performances.

News & Media Links

- Article Title - Publication Name, Year

Notes

Any other relevant information.

Links to external sites or press kits

Any other relevant information.

From:

<https://wiki-dj.com/> - WikiDJ

Permanent link:

https://wiki-dj.com/doku.php?id=charlotte_de_witte&rev=1753795245

Last update: 2025/07/29 13:20

