Diego Straube

 Guatemala City producer and DJ shaping driving psytech and minimal techno

Biography

Diego Straube is an electronic music producer from Guatemala City who has spent time living in both Berlin and Guatemala.[1)]

 He started listening to electronic music at the age of nine and owned his own equipment by the age of 13. He began with minimal techno and describes his current sound as psytech and minimal techno, and says he has shared turntables with a number of well-known DJs in recent years.[2)]

 His releases include the single Estafa on Numen (2021), Alkali on Alula Tunes (2022) and Bringing the Heat on Alula Tunes (2023).[3)]

 He has collaborated with Dani Sbert (Utopia), Krypta (Plastic) and Aender (Relaxation Method). He has remixed Kate Hex (Mirador) and Carbon (Surface), while Carbon and Akari System have remixed his tracks Circuit Reactor and Ion Vault.[4)]

Notable Releases

- '2023' - `Bringing the Heat` - [Alula Tunes]
- '2022' - `Alkali` - [Alula Tunes]
- '2021' - `Estafa` - [Numen]

Gigs & Festivals Played

News & Media Links

Notes

Links to external sites or press kits

- Discogs - Diego Straube