

A-Trak

Canadian turntablist prodigy and label head, pioneering hip-hop and EDM crossovers.

A brief one-sentence summary or tagline for the artist.

Biography

Alain Macklovitch (born 1982 in Montreal) won the DMC World DJ Championship at age 15, becoming the youngest ever champion<sup>[12]</sup>. As A-Trak, he founded Fool's Gold Records in 2007 and has produced for artists like Kanye West, Bruno Mars, and Dua Lipa. He is also one half of Duck Sauce, whose single "Barbra Streisand" earned a Grammy nomination in 2012<sup>[12]</sup>.

Notable Releases

- * '1997' - Step Off - Rawkus
- * '2007' - Fool's Gold Sampler - Fool's Gold
- * '2012' - Barbra Streisand (Duck Sauce) - Fool's Gold

Gigs & Festivals Played

- * Coachella
- * Ultra Music Festival
- * Boiler Room sets

News & Media Links

* Official Website

Notes

Pioneering turntablist; Rolling Stone listed him among the 50 Most Important People in EDM.

Links to external sites or press kits

* Official Website

wikiDJ Artist Schema
Real Name :	Alain Macklovitch

wikiDJ Artist Schema

Role	DJ
-------------	----

From:

<https://wiki-dj.com/> - WikiDJ

Permanent link:

<https://wiki-dj.com/doku.php?id=profile:a-trak>Last update: 2025/09/27 13:35