

Aaron King

☐ Australian minimal techno producer from NSW, blending dark grooves with psychedelic depth. ☐

Biography

Aaron King is a DJ and producer from the Central Coast of New South Wales, Australia. Growing up in a household steeped in electronic music, with his father DJing for over a decade, King naturally gravitated toward the decks. He began DJing in 2016, quickly becoming a fixture at underground raves, Sydney nightclubs, and bush doofs across NSW. His sets are known for weighted minimal techno infused with psychedelic influences, drawing inspiration from artists such as Carbon, Lampe, and Peter Dinklage.

In 2017, King transitioned into production, experimenting across genres before honing in on dark minimal techno. His work has since been released on respected underground labels including Techgnosis Records, Compile Records, Subios Records, AlpaKa MuziK, Music4Aliens, Music4Clubbers, Joker Black Label, and Puzzles. His tracks have appeared on major compilations such as Pieces Vol. 1 (Puzzles) and The Explorer Vol. 5 (Techgnosis Records), alongside artists like Monococ, San Nicolás, and LEKTRK.

King's productions often feature hypnotic basslines, intricate percussion, and atmospheric textures, earning him recognition in the global minimal and psy-techno community. His music has been supported by international DJs and featured in Beatport's genre charts.
