

Gabriel Moraes

□ Brazilian techno innovator fusing Berlin grit, progressive drive, and rave energy into hypnotic journeys. □

Biography

Gabriel Moraes is a Brazilian DJ and producer known for his adventurous approach to techno, blending Berlin-inspired grit with progressive house and rave influences. His productions are consistently supported by leading figures such as Eric Prydz, Solomun, Victor Ruiz, ANNA, D-Nox, Coyu, and Nicole Moudaber. Moraes has carved out a reputation for pushing boundaries, with tracks that balance melodic tension and robust, driving grooves.

He has released on respected imprints including Natura Viva, Prisma Techno, Alula Tunes, and RH2, and his music has been featured on high-profile compilations such as Techno City Themes Vol. 06 and Progressive House Waves Vol. 06. His 2020 breakout track Magnetite gained international attention, cementing his place in the global techno scene.

Moraes has performed across Brazil and internationally, appearing at underground showcases and festivals where his sets are praised for their intensity and emotional depth. His work continues to resonate with both underground tastemakers and mainstream audiences, bridging the gap between progressive and peak-time techno.
