// Melbourne psytrance DJ on Up Records, crafting pulsating beats and enchanting melodies for Australian festival dance floors. ☐☐☐ //

Biography

A decade of unwavering dedication to his craft has honed Skarekrow's innate ability to weave soundscapes that ignite the senses.<sup>[^1]</sup> With an unbridled passion for music, his sets are a mesmerizing fusion of pulsating beats and enchanting melodies, a compelling testament to his commitment to keeping the crowd in perpetual motion.<sup>[^1]</sup> Initially exploring broader electronic sounds, it was through this initial exploration that Skarekrow unearthed his true passion—the psychedelic allure of psytrance.<sup>[^1]</sup>

In 2014, he made a pivotal transition, crafting a love affair with the genre that endures to this day, illuminating dance floors across the nation.<sup>[^1]</sup> Skarekrow's meteoric rise within the festival circuit stands as a testament to his undeniable talent, with his sound becoming synonymous with high-energy, psychedelic journeys that resonate deeply with dedicated doof and festival crowds.<sup>[^1]</sup>

In 2017, he graced the stage at Earthcore, catapulting his career into the heart of the doof and festival scene.<sup>[^1]</sup> His crowning achievement came in 2019 when he cast a sonic spell over the Rainbow Serpent Festival, leaving an indelible mark on all in attendance and solidifying his reputation as a powerful presence behind the decks.<sup>[^1]</sup>

Skarekrow's influence extends beyond the turntables, as he has had the privilege of sharing stages with some of the world's most acclaimed artists.<sup>[^1]</sup> His list of international collaborators reads like a roll call of psytrance royalty: Phaxe (Denmark), Madd Maxx (America), Madd Tribe (America), Royal Flush (Israel), Freedom Fighters (Israel), Ace Ventura (Switzerland), Mandragora (Mexico), Ranji (Israel), Mystical Complex (Israel), Rinkadink (Japan), Morten Granau (Denmark), and many more, underscoring his standing within the global psytrance community.<sup>[^1]</sup>
