Biography

Till von Sein is a DJ and producer based in Berlin, Germany, whose real name is Jan Till Lüdke. His work centers on house music and its many derivatives, and he approaches the genre with the enthusiasm of someone still delighted by a favorite toy. For him, the crisp sound of an 808 clap can spark a kind of ecstasy, and on the dance floor that feeling turns into pure euphoria. His sets are built on thumping transitions that keep listeners moving, and they draw out the roots of house, soul and disco and show why those styles remain so exciting.[1)]

His early releases began to appear in the late 2000s, with a 2007 single, Gestern, and the Sein Days EP in 2008 on Morris Audio. Over the following years he released material on a range of labels, including Dirt Crew Recordings, Supplement Facts, Pets Recordings and Suol. Much of his later output has come through his own label, Tilly Jam, which has issued singles such as Cruise Control in 2019, Ocean in 2019, Let Go / You & I in 2020 and Bimbes in 2021, along with Jams For 22 Part 1 in 2022. He also took part in a 2015 episode of the Solid Steel Radio Show.[2)3)]

Collaboration has been central to his career. He made six records with Tigerskin between 2009 and 2014, three with Aera between 2006 and 2011, and two each with Kid Enigma, Meggy and Chopstick. He also worked with Tender Games, KE, Lazarus and Kev Obrien on single releases. His remix work spans a wide circle of artists and labels, including Mohig, Keenarf featuring Jinadu, and Melohman and Javi Bora featuring Shyam P, and his tracks have appeared on compilations such as Defected Ibiza 2017 and Best Of Cacao.[4)]

Today his audience follows him closely online, with 52,226 followers on SoundCloud and 342 tracks uploaded there. His catalogue shows a steady commitment to the club-oriented house sound he has pursued since the start of his career.[5)6)]
